Opportunity in the Industry

Non-prescribed drugs (non-Rx) market

- Shifting consumer preference towards e-commerce channels
- Lifestyle-related health challenges continue to drive greater consumption of supplements and OTC remedies
- Rising health awareness will drive the shift to prevention instead of curative treatment
- Increasing ingredient-consciousness among consumers is driving preference for natural products

Prescribed drugs (Rx) market

- Increased elderly population drive the degenerative medication needs
- Chronic disease rising incidence
- Digital health adoption among healthcare professionals continues to accelerate in the post-COVID era.
- JKN to improve access and boost volume for generics
